

JAMALI
FLORAL & GARDEN SUPPLIES

2015
jamaligarden.com

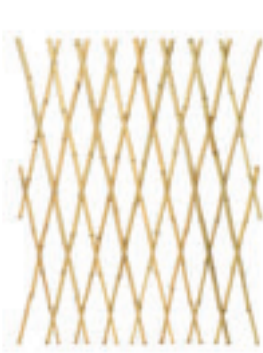

In 1997 our family opened Jamali Floral & Garden Supplies in the New York Flower Market with the mission to bring our customers unique products that would inspire them to create beautiful events. Influenced by having lived all over the world, our well-curated line of items also comes from places around the globe, including: vintage-look mercury glass and handcrafted brass from India, blown glass from Poland, fair trade raffia from Madagascar, carved teak from Indonesia, exotic seashells from the Philippines, modern zinc from Vietnam, and hand-thrown pottery from Tunisia.

Today, Jamali Garden is a trusted, wholesale source for florists, wedding and event planners, stylists, caterers, hotels, restaurants, decorators, and set designers, for exclusive decor, floral, home, holiday, lighting, and garden products. We carry large quantities, available for shipment for your grand fetes or small, more intimate affairs.

Browse these pages, shop online at jamaligarden.com for even more items, and when in New York, visit our location on West 28th Street.
